Project Overview

A. Project Description

A study is required to assess the Rhodes Tower Office Building vertical envelope for structural stability, rain control, air control, heat control, vapor control, and finish. This study will include a forensic investigation, analysis, and evaluation of the existing conditions. This is a study, the project scope does not include construction documents, but a comprehensive report including estimated costs for remediation is the deliverable. The report shall indicate locations of all testing with photographs (located on keying documents for clarity), a description of each test (all testing will be conducted per applicable ASTM and ANSI standards), including methodology, testing reports, analysis, conclusions, and estimates based on testing and observation.

The development of improvements and/or remediation based on the outcome of the analysis along with a Critical Observation Report (per City of Columbus Code) shall also be provided. Should it progress into a construction project, the anticipated project delivery method would be General Contracting. State Prevailing Wage requirements would apply. Facilities necessary to support a comprehensive investigation on a high-rise building are the responsibility of the consultant. The building's existing window washing equipment is not certified, and is not anticipated for this study's use.
