The Ariel Opera House supports culture through the presentation of, and the provision of education in, the musical arts. The facility is the home of the Ohio Valley Symphony (OVS). Each year, the OVS offers a five concert subscription series with an additional holiday concert in December. In addition to its resident orchestra, the Ariel hosts a number of performers and performance groups, including solo artists and bands, church choirs, jazz ensembles and big bands, comedians, barbershop choruses, and local high school productions.
